Nervi is the oldest producer in Gattinara, with over 100 years in operation. Located in North Piedmont, the region is famed for the production of one of Italy's finest and most historic wines. Today it has Burgundian winemakers working for the "King of Grapes" – Nebbiolo. The years of experience has taught them that only through aging do they manage to transform Gattinara's extraordinarily high level of tannins into a well balanced wine. So in the cellars of Nervi, wines are aged at least a year or two beyond the formal DOCG ageing requirements.

Hence Luigi Nervi's motto, Nectar in Tempore, meaning that patient ageing in Nervi's cellars will transform its Nebbiolo grapes into the prized elixir that made Roman gods immortal.

Must be tasted to be believed. Softer tannins, and more approachable, unlike anything you've tasted before. Bright cherry, strawberry, wild herbs. Very Pinot Noir in style. Great with light sauced pasta, white meat, grilled fish.
