Since 1978, San Patrignano has helped more than 20,000 young men and women suffering from drug addiction and marginalization. This wine is the result of the people living in this community where the search for excellence is an educational and formative tool. Through their education and rehabilitation programs, San Patrignano offers a new life for those suffering through its commitment towards building a quality community and better society.

GAMBERO ROSSO®
WINE

Tre Bicchieri Winner 2013

The nose is ample and intense with notes of red currant, raspberry, and plum, and aromas of leather, licorice, and undergrowth. The palate reveals freshness and elegance, well balanced tannins with fruitful aromas helped by 18 months of large barrel aging. Ora can be paired with various courses of Romagna's traditional cuisine: tagliatelle with ragù, sheep and goat cheeses, roasted and grilled meats.
